Daily Racing Form in San Francisco.

Readers of DAILY RACING FORM in San Francisco can get the paper regularly at the Baldwin Hotel news stand, and from Foster & Orear Ferry Building, foot of Market Street.

MONTANA'S GRAND RACING.

Horsemen should not forget the rich offerings of the Montana racing field. Its stakes close Thursday. There are twelve of them, built on common sensible and modern lines. During the fifty-four days racing at Anaconda and Butte some $152,000 will be distributed. The towns are but twenty-seven miles apart. Therefore there is fifty-four days continuous racing. During this term of fifty-four days about half the $152,000 will be given to the winners of thoroughbred events. Transportation is reasonably cheap to Montana. Once there, owners will find a grateful climate, stabling and general accommodations of the first class, courteous treatment, and everyday winning conditions for all classes of horses.

The Montana racing enterprise is a modern wonder. From nothing it sprang to more than respectability in 1896. From the Montana field came such great turf individuals as Ogden, the Futurity winner, May W and others.

The 1897 racing plan of the Montana tracks is far higher than that of last season. Manager Daly's princely purse is behind the enterprise. That keen and thorough horseman, Ed A. Tipton, who became famous by his management of the Kentucky Association track, is the manager of the Montana enterprise. Though a mere green horn in Montana last year, Tipton's success was phenomenal. This year will show the fruit of his experience. Horsemen can well afford to go to Montana for the offerings displayed and should not forget that entries to the twelve stakes close Thursday. Entries sent to DAILY RACING FORM in time will cheerfully be wired to Montana free of charge to owners.

NEWPORT'S FINE PROSPECTS.

The Queen City Jockey Club course at Newport, Ky., begins its spring meeting next Thursday, April 1. The establishment has been much improved, especially in the way of new stables and roads about the track. Some 250 new well ventilated stalls have been added to the Newport plant this spring. Already some 300 horses are at Newport ready to race. Among them are many of the best in the west and some from the eastern stables who will race in the west this year.

Time, 25½, 51½, 1:19½.

Winner—B. g. by Woodlands—Julie W.
Start poor. Won driving; next three under full pressure. Christy was not the best. Mamie Callan ran straight enough but quit last furlong. Nairete should have won. Callan bumped into Nairete and Christy both first sixteenth. Nairete suffered most. But for mishap he would have won. Morrissey ran as though dead to the world and its evils.
Scratched—Overflow, 93; J. M. B. 98; Sugar Cane, 98.
Overweights—Cavalry, 4 pounds; Infelice, 2.
